PAILED IN THEIR SCHEME

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S LATEST AND WORST FIZZLE.

The Attempt to Implicate the Leaders of The National League With the Recent Dynamite Plots May Cause the Election to Mosnit in an Irish Victory.

LOWDON, Nov. 1 .- The repeated attempt eds by the government through the pelice fix the responsibility of various so-called amite plots upon the leaders of the Synamics pious upon failed dismally. The has brilliant scheme by which they prosed to effect a complete revulsion of feeling among Hnglishmes toward the Irish cause has, perhaps, been the worst fizzle of all. That the government's hand has been behind these endeavors on the part of the police department is no longer a matter of

The truth has come out little by little, until now a well defined chain of evidence is in the hands of certain members of parfiament, showing how the government have attempted to implicate the Irish leaders in crimes that would unfailingly take from them the assistance upon which they depend. If the government could only have made it to appear that the Nationalists were engaged in planning dynam te outrages, they would by this means have allenated from the cause of Home Rule the large number of English votes that they fear will be cast at the next election in favor of Ireland's cause. They have been unsuccessful in their attempts, and the exposure of their plans to implicate Irishmen, guilty or not guilty, is due in a large measure to the clumsy manner in which the police have handled the cases investigated.

It has been but too evident from the first what was intended, and now that the government have failed each time to show that the National members of parliament have been mixed up in any of the dynamite plots which they have professed to discover their endeavors in this direction, are bringing them into as much ridicule at the failure of their coercion scheme in Ireland itself. It would be mere foliy for the Irish members to be concerned in dynamite plots, for this would set at naught all the good work that they have accomplished by patience and forbearance, and would effectually ruin all prospects for the future. It is not known whether the government will pursue their policy in this direction any further or not, but whatever "plota" they may discover will undoubtedly turn out to be the vagaries er irresponsible persons, and not the schemes of the men whom the government fendly desire to criminate.

Editor O'Brien's Appeal.

CORK, Nov. 1 .- The appeal of Editor William O'Brien was argued in the quarter sessions court at Middleton to-day. The sentence of the lower court was confirmed. When the decision of the court was ansounced the spectators jumped up and denounced the magistrate. An indescribable aproar ensued and many exciting scenes macted. Mr. O'Brien was present, and after the court gave its decision the people tried to prevent the police from taking Mr. O'Brien into custody. Mr. T. Harrington, Mr. O'Brien's counsel, contended that the authorities were not entitled to imprison his client until the court of last resort had been appealed to. A terrible struggle took place in the court room and the passage leading from the court room between Mr. O'Brien and the pince. The former resented ar-rest and fought the police with all his strength. The ladies present added to the aproar with their screams and several ned away. Mr. O'Brien was finally siged in jail. There was an immense rowd outside the court building and the lows of the confirmation of Mr. O'Brien's once and his arrest drove the awaiting altitude almost frantic with rage. It is simated that fully 20,000 people were as-mbled in and around the court house. The stest excitement prevails in Middleton. The people are parading the streets de-councing the outrage, and a conflict be-seen the mob and police is momentarily Let Them Go.

Sermon on Anarchy. CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—At Plymouth Congregational church Sunday, Rev. Frank Gunsaulus in his sermon said: "I feel that it is a fitting time, while the Anarchists are un-bung, while their fate is in the hands of the supreme court of the United States and while honest, but, as I think, misguided men are pleading to save their lives—to con-sider the problem of a great city's life.". Among these problems he said were Anarchism, Socialism, pauperism, intemperof these men would solve the problem of Anarchy. Something more was needed for the settlement of these questions. They must yield to moral principle, to the influence of the Gospel of Christ.
